

CMS Innovation Center - Webinars and Forums Data Dictionary
Term Name	Definition
Title	Plain text field usually including the type of event, name of the model, demonstration, initiative or program of focus for the event and key theme for presentation or discussion.
URL	Website URL field containing the online direct uniform resource locator (URL) for an individual event web page containing additional information.
Description	Plain text field containing a high-level, narrative summary of the event and presentation or discussion topics.
Start Date	Date and time field containing the calendar date and associated time event starts or started.
End Date	Date and time field containing the calendar date and associated time event ends or ended.
Timezone	Plain text field containing specification of event timezone.
Related Item 1	Website URL field containing relevant information associated with the event, including but not limited to model, demonstration, initiative or program web pages.
Related Item 2	Website URL field containing relevant information associated with the event, including but not limited to model, demonstration, initiative or program web pages.
Related Item 3	Website URL field containing relevant information associated with the event, including but not limited to model, demonstration, initiative or program web pages.
Related Item 4	Website URL field containing relevant information associated with the event, including but not limited to model, demonstration, initiative or program web pages.
Related Item 5	Website URL field containing relevant information associated with the event, including but not limited to model, demonstration, initiative or program web pages.
Upcoming	Check box field allowing ability to indicate emphasis for event scheduled in the future.
Unique ID	Number field containing identification number unique to each dataset row.